

Ideas On Golf Vacation Packages

Golf vacations can be a pure joy if planned correctly, but before you embark on a search for golf vacation packages, you'll need to figure out what type of vacations you're planning to take.

While some golf vacationers will simply want to play golf every day, if you're a beginner you may discover that taking some golf lessons while you're vacationing will not only improve your game but your vacations as well.

Depending on how much time you'll actually have you may want to spend some quality time with your family and enjoy some local activities.

In the end a lot of decision making will be based around your allotted budget.

Be aware that if you're considering a golf vacation package which includes golf lessons this type of vacation could leave you short on time when it comes to enjoying other activities as these types of golf vacation packages are intense and time consuming. Golf instructions are normally early in the morning and then you get to enjoy an 18 hole later in the day.

If you plan to enjoy any other activities, you might want to consider two weeks as a starting point. Anything shorter won't allow you the time to enjoy much else.

If your goal is golf golf golf and you're not going to be doing anything else other than golf than 1 week is an ideal length of time.

When it comes to destinations there many beautiful countries to consider. The Caribbean islands offers plenty of warm rays making it an ideal golf mecca. You can enjoy an early mid morning jog on beautiful beaches and great golfing on gorgeous courses in the afternoon.

The islands of the Caribbeans offer numerous golf vacation packages for every type of budget.

In no real order, When it comes to golf resorts, here are some of the most famous of these islands:

Virgin Islands

Barbados

Dominican Republic

If you're like my sister's husband and you enjoy weather that's more on the cool side you may want to consider playing golf in beautiful Western Canada.

One of the most beautiful golf courses ever designed by the famed Jack Nicklaus is without a doubt Nicklaus North in Whistler. The surrounding view is breath taking! The snow topped mountains in the distance, the clean air, and its forgiving fairways and majestic greens makes this 18 hole one of the must see and be played in Canada.

Now if you're looking to be pampered while on vacation and treated like a King or Queen the Whistler Golf and Country Club owes it's life to The King, Arnold Palmer. This course has some truly unequalled views, tight greens and long fairways.

But although you're treated like royalty the friendly atmosphere from the servers at the bar to the cart boys, it's no wonder that Whistler Golf and Country Club is by far one of the most enjoyed clubs in the country.

If your budget is limited there countries like China and Mexico, where the dollar is worth far more, can really make a difference. These countries have luxury golf resorts where you can stay and play for 4 days, 3 nights for under $1000! Plus at these golf resorts you'll receive the same 4-5-star service that you would in other much more expensive resorts.

Alright enough said. Now it's your turn. Simply Google "golf vacation packages" or "discount golf vacation packages" where you're certain to find a golf vacation to suite your taste and budget.

Happy golfing!
